Art Unit: 2152

1.Claims 1-9,12-30 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Krause [5,526,520].

- 2.As per claim 1, Krause discloses a method for identifying a secondary document relative to a primary document comprising: determining if said primary document includes an indicator; and identifying said secondary document if said primary document includes said indicator [col 9 line 28-col 10 line 5].
- 3.As per claim 2, Krause discloses attaching said secondary document to said primary document if said primary document includes said indicator [col 10 lines 6-27]
- 4. As per claim 3, Krause discloses said secondary document has a filename and a location, the method further comprising determining at least one of said filename and said location of said secondary document [col 6 lines 35-45].
- 5.As per claim 4, Krause discloses said secondary document has a filename and a location, the method further comprising determining at least one of said filename and said location of said secondary document as a function of a user input [col 6 lines 35-45].
- 6.As per claim 5, Krause discloses said primary document includes at least one word, and wherein determining at least one of said filename and said location of said secondary document is performed as a function of said at least one word as a design choice of frame name [col 6 line 35-col 7 line 28].
- 7. As per claim 6, Krause discloses said primary document includes a plurality of words, and wherein determining at least one of said filename and said location of said secondary document is performed as a function of said plurality of words within a predetermined proximity of said indicator included in said plurality of words as a design choice of frame name [col 6 line 35-col 7 line 28].

- 8. As per claim 7, Krause discloses associating a predetermined word with at least one of said filename and said location of said secondary document, wherein said primary document includes said predetermined word, and wherein identifying at least one of said filename and said location of said secondary document is performed as a function of said predetermined word as a design choice of frame name [col 6 line 35-col 7 line 28].
- 9. As per claim 8, Krause discloses said indicator includes at least one of a plurality of predetermined words, a plurality of predetermined characters, and a plurality of predetermined phrases as a design choice of frame name [col 6 line 35-col 7 line 28].
- 10. As per claim 9, Krause discloses determining if said at least one word includes one of said indicator is performed using syntactic processing or menu [col 6 line 35-col 7 line 28].
- 11. As per claim 12, Krause discloses sending said primary document and said secondary document attached thereto to a printing device [Krause col 2 line 48]
- 12. As per claim 13, Krause discloses said primary document and said secondary document attached thereto to a recipient via facsimile or scanner [Krause col 2 line 48]
- 13. As per claim 14, Krause discloses said secondary document is attached to said primary document at a first instance, said first instance being determined as a function of a user input [Krause col 6 lines 35-45].
- 14. As per claim 15, Krause discloses adding at least one additional indicator to said indicator as a function of a user input [Krause col 6 lines 35-45].

15. As per claims 16-30 contain the similar limitations set forth of method claims 1-9,12-15. Therefore, claims 16-30 are rejected for the same rationale set forth claims 1-9,12-15.

16.Claims 10-11 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. § 103 as being unpatentable over Krause [5,526,520] in view of Narasimhan et al [Narasimhan 6,073,165]

As per claim 10, Krause is silent to discloses said primary document includes an email message. However Narasimhan discloses a message processing system including the firs message which is further processed to create a second message such as an email message with file attachment [Narasimhan col 1 lines 40-60, col 5 lines 3-17].

Therefore, it would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to combine the Krause and Nirasimhan 's teaching. By doing so it would provide the fast and easy way to send the document to client through a large network such as Internet.

17. As per claim 11, Krause-NIrasimhan disclose sending said e-mail message and said secondary document attached thereto to a recipient via a communications device [Narasimhan col 1 lines 40-60, col 5 lines 3-17].
